GET INVOLVED WITH SUNA

Would you like to be actively involved in SUNA?

You can be part of an established professional network, gain skills as a communicator and demonstrate leadership at either the local, regional, or national level.

The ways available to become involved with SUNA can help you make a difference in the urologic health of your patients. The experience will help you grow personally and professionally, subsequently making you more marketable in the health care arena.

SUNA is an association run by volunteers. We recognize that your time is limited and that we are only one of many organizations seeking your time and expertise.
Please consider joining us as we shape the future of health care for urologic patients.

Together we can truly make a difference and meet the challenges that lie ahead.

Please visit www.suna.org for more volunteer information.
